The Action at Shinjuku Station Square, Tokyo, against the new US military air base at Henoko, Okinawa, received Yamashiro Hiroji, Chairperson, Okinawa Peace Movement Center, from Okinawa on March 27. Yamashiro gave a speech saying, "We express thanks to your actions against the new U.S. military base construction. The struggle at Henoko is linked with those for abolition of the new security-related laws and against resuming operation of nuclear power generation. We cannot afford to be defeated. The current suspension of the construction works at Henoko is a result of the sit-ins and canoeing protest risking life in Okinawa and the nation-wide supports from outside Okinawa. We can see the perspective of victory. Let us struggle together!" (Photo by SHIN-YA, Square at Studio ALTA, Shinjuku, Tokyo, on March 27, 2016)

Let us cultivate the future of socialism against the barbarism of capitalism

FUJITA Kyoko

Now, violence by the government and capitalists, that are trying to lead the people on the road to wars, is also directed against history. It is covering the true history of struggles by workers and people and is distorting it at their convenience. Now, it will be a starting point to counter the barbaric current if we the workers and people face the idea
