Report from Henoko in Okinawa

Human rights of Okinawans excluded even in COVID-19 pandemic

We continue the efforts and the ingenuity to act at Henoko

MEDORUMA Shun (Writer)

Amid the ongoing spread of the new coronavirus infection, the government of Japan and the Okinawa Defense Bureau continued to push for the construction of the new Henoko

US military base, despite the citizens' voices calling for immediate termination of construction.

Eventually on April 16, it became clear that workers engaged in off-shore work were infected with the new coronavirus. 14 people who used the same building were on standby at home/lodging, and the Okinawa
